Open Letter to the Seniors

Let this be my final advice to you. The door of life is open, the path is clear and straight. Do not look back but ever forward and each and everyone of you will find that whatever field you may choose it will bring happiness. Remember there is always room for one more good man.

Personally I will always remember the Seniors of '49 at Kasky. We had our differences but now remains but friendship, and I wish to all of you the best of luck in life.

The Industrial Arts Department offers three courses in shop work, Shop 1, Shop 2, and Farm Shop. Shop 1 and 2 cover mechanical drawing, woodwork, metalwork, electricity, and craftwork. Craftwork includes plastics, art metal, silver, leather, and carving. Farm Shop is a course in which the work is applied to the farm and farm life. It includes care and maintenance of tools, carpentry, ropework, metalwork, electricity, machine overhaul, and mechanics.

Several improvements have been made in the shop this year making it a more efficient place to work. They include drawing tables, lockers, a sink with running water, a stockroom, storage cupboards, and a ramp which makes it possible to bring machinery etc., into the shop to work on.

An important part of shopwork is the clean-up schedule. All the janitor work in the shop is done by the students. A rotating schedule provides each student with a specific clean-up job. This makes it possible to sweep the entire shop, put away all tools, and clean up the machines in just a few minutes.

Most of the students in Shop 1 are Freshman, those in Shop 2 are Sophomores, and those in Farm Shop are Juniors. Several girls enrolled in Shop 1 this year and have been very successful at this type of work.

Robert G. Hall
Principal

It has been our aim during your high school sojourn to provide you with the atmosphere and opportunities which will inspire each of you to make the most of your natural talents. Our interests will follow you as you proceed on your own, and we will be hoping sincerely for your success.

Mr. Leonard Fessenden

Mr. Albert Rose

Many thanks to this pair whose efforts we appreciate. They were always willing to stay at rather late hours after our school functions and gave us a helping hand whenever we needed it.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1936, six hardy pioneers, Peggy Ann Campbell, Dwight Hendricks, Bruce Lantzer, Edward Schneider, Ross Vallad, and Shirley Vipond started on their expedition to find the Golden Rewards of Education. Our leader for the first two years was Lucy Kneeland. This time was spent in rugged preparation for our expedition by running up and down the teeter-totter and throwing mudballs from the sand tables.

In our second year of hardship, or First Grade, we were joined by another pioneer in the form of Betty Lewis.

In our third year of wandering, or Second Grade, Miss Anne Makel took over the reins. Around the campfire, we were regaled with the adventurous tales of a funny cat named Fanny.

In the third grade the expedition was separated into Brownies and Fairies: the Fairies being the intelligent two thirds, and under the guidance of Miss Finety, and the Brownies (Dwight and Ross) being the mediocre part of the class stayed behind in 3-B with Annie.

In the Fourth Grade we were joyfully reunited. Under Miss Finety we had a whole year of learning to live like Indians in a teepee while the more civilized students lived under the library table. During this year a gap was filled in our wagon train when Goldie Prentice joined our party.

Our experiences were just beginning when we were joined by Miss Makel and her rubber hose. In the fifth grade, It was during this year that we were joined by Patty Thornburg and Duane Thomas. Many times we watched with horror as Patty, who was not as rugged as we, took a swig--of cod liver oil.

In the sixth grade, we overtook A. C. Hansen who had been loitering along the trail. A.C., who was more worldly than we, showed us how to deposit our cuds in the inkwells. During this year the campfire got out of control and our dear wagon train burned. (yuk, yuk, that was a hot one!)

After about a week of vacation our studies were resumed in the Ladies Aid Hall. This was a very delightful experience for many of the pea-shooter enthusiasts because just across the street was the rear of the Kroger store where they could easily replenish their supply of ammunition with peas or beans which were unfit for human consumption. As there was no water supply available we all carried our own.

In the seventh grade we settled for one year in the town hall. We have many fond memories such as the aroma of Limburger cheese roasting on the furnace. And also those many pleasant interruptions when the train would stop and let off steam beside our classroom window. Miss Elizabeth Banks proved to be a very good leader and showed tendencies for strong discipline.

The next year we moved on, equipped with a new wagon train. We also lost Superintendent Woolly who was replaced with Mr. C. W. Clayton. We spent the eighth grade in the Home Economics room, again with Miss Banks as an instructor. Mrs. Bellinger tried to teach us English. Eugene Anderson and Donna Ball joined us that year. Then to the mutual satisfaction of both the teachers and ourselves we graduated from Junior High.

We entered our freshman year with a feeling of cockiness which after about two days changed to confused bewilderment. We survived the sophomore hazing. In Shop I, the feature attraction of the day, we learned all the angles and discussed most of the curves. Many of the members of Biology class lost their appetite for pork after the dissection of a bloated pig. Our troop increased this year when we were joined by Nancy Aldridge, Nila Angell, Mary Ann Blair, Jeanne Carlisle, Robert Eckhardt, Alta Mae Grover, Joyce Golden, Wilda Hall, Louis Hayward, William Henschel, Nancy Isham, Robert Miller, Jean McCoy, Rex Sieting, Alan Sieting, Lawrence Stebbins, Joan Thorington, Marion Wesel, and Reatha Wonsey.

We moved on. Two new members entered our multitude, Al Brickway and Phyllis Blanchard. It was during our Sophomore year that we held our first dance. We made $7.00.

We had a financially successful junior year under the guidance of Mrs. Clayton. One of the high-lights of the year was the beautiful Junior Prom. This year Don Binney and Frances Burnett joined us. We had a successful Junior Play "They Gave Him a Co-ed". We had the experienced direction of Mrs. French. At the Junior Senior banquet we bade the Seniors of that year a fond farewell.

At last we are SENIORS. Deo Gratias! The only addition to our class this year was Kenneth Bird. Our Senior year was spent in the hectic search of the almighty dollar. Mr. Richard La Mothe was our able advisor equipped with many original ideas. Our Senior Play "The Big Potato", co-directed by Mr. La Mothe and Mr. Hall was a huge success and very funny. At date of writing we expect to go to Mackinac Island via boat from Detroit the middle of May. Our Baccalaureate Services will be held Sunday, May 22, 1949. Our Graduation will take place the night of May 26, 1949.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hello---Operator? Give me Elm 703. Hello Mable? My dear, can you imagine? I just received a letter from EDWARD SCHNEIDER. He's a foreign correspondent in China and he had just heard from LAWRENCE STEBBINS saying that he had become a millionaire, but of course you knew they had struck oil on their place. Via the grape-vine he also heard BETTY LEWIS and SHIRLEY VIPOND are registered nurses and are making a big name for themselves as sole owners of an insane asylum. Everyone is nuts over them. RICHARD BROCKWAY whose presidential worries and grieis were brought on by the Class of '49 is now a temporary resident there. His favorite pastime is carving "Agnes" out of Lux Soap flakes.

JEANNE CARLISLE is on Broadway playing the new Carlisle "59" version of "Turkey in the Straw". We hear NANCY ALDRIDGE is a member of the band.

PEGGY ANN CAMPBELL has invented a cure for the giggles and rumors say she's selling it on the street corners of New York. DUANE THOMAS has a Airplane-Tazi Business and flys her back and forth week-ends. Just like the good old days.

DON BONNEY IS Coach of Mich. State but rumors say he's going to quit and marry Sally. A. C. HANSEN is on his team and has finally got a 2 point game average.

PHYLLIS BLANCHARD is head of the Dahiquist Store and expects to be transferred to Chicago any time for head position in the Candy Dept.

NILA ANGELL is a stewardess of Capital Airlines and has just returned from an airline trip around the world. And guess who the pilot was, none other than BRUCE LANTZER. Rumors are they finally have stopped fighting and will be married.

EUGENE ANDERSON and ROSS VALLAD are running a small office with a cure for hiccoughs and headaches as their speciality.

JOYCE GOLDEN and her husband are living in a little bungalow at O'Neill Corners.

REATHA WONSEY is still living in Kalkaska and is being seen going back and forth to her job at the new telephone offices.

ROBERT ECKHARDT is a professor at Harvard and is head of the Agriculture department.

ALTA GRONER is making a big noise these days as first cornet in Harry James band.

LOUIS HAYWARD is now president of the South Broadman Band and is considered quite prosperous. After looking around and having fun NANCY ISHAM has finally decided to marry Max Hamacher. They have their own little oil company now.

PATRICIA THORNBURG and her husband Jerry, are sole owners of a chain of "WEE WOBBLE INN" restaurants throughout Michigan and Ohio.

WILDA HALL is now living very quietly but happily on a small farm with Howard Babcock.

WILLIAM HENSCHELL now owns a fleet of school buses, to transport the kids to Kalkaska, where FRANCES BURNETT is now teaching Advanced French, also associated with the school is GOLDIE PRENTICE as Head of the School Board.

CLASS WILL

We, the SENIOR Class, of Kalkaska High School, Kalkaska County, State of Michigan, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by us at any time heretofore made.

Nancy Aldridge wills her ability for doing her French to Jack Branderhorst.

Eugene Anderson leaves his ability for arguing to Ida Mae Harrington.

Joan Thorington wills her tallness to Verna Tufts.

A.C. Hansen wills his experience in basketball to Jack Richardson.

Marion Wesel wills her skipping day to Madge Russell.

Frances Barnett wills here ability to get to school on time to Ed. Lantzer.

Robert Eckhardt wills his ability to misspell words to anyone who needs it.

Donna Ball leaves her shortness to Jean Francis.

Jean McCoy leaves her dark hair to Nancy Smith.

Shirley Vipond leaves her height to Margaret Priest (some of it that is).

Betty Lewis leaves her strong vocal cords to Agnes Curtis and Gerald Cross.

Duane Thomas wills his way with women to Donnie Forbes and Art Sherman.

Peggy Ann Campbell leaves to Keith Avery her dimples.

Nila Angell wills her angelic disposition to Joan Golden.

Louis Hayward wills his curls to the many girls in the Junior Class who haven't any.

Phyllis Blanchard leaves her way with men to Charlene Nave and Sally Barten.

Ross Vallad leaves his sense of humor to Max Dunlap and Jim Birgy.

Goldie Prentice leaves her red hair to Bonnie and Connie Richards.

Alta Mae Groner wills her long curls to Esther Thornburg.

Jeanne Carlisle leaves her crown to any one who can get it. "she was Trout Queen of '49".

Richard Brockway leaves his job of class president to anyone who wants it.

William Henschel leaves his ability to help the class to LeRoy Brown.

Edward Schneider wills his studying ability to John Keller and Gordon Van Amburg and Maurice Kenel.

Wilda Hall leaves her way in getting along with people to Carolyn Campbell.

Joyce Golden wills her ability to get 'em and keep 'em to Margaret Dalley.

Kenneth Bird takes everything with him, except his bottle opener and who wants it may have it.

Bruce Lantzer leaves his "up-in-the-air-mind" to Leslie Brown.

Mary Ann Blair leaves her ability as study hall teacher to Donna Berry.

Reatha Wonsey wills her good-naturedness to Henry Van Hoye.

Alan Sieting wills his hard—"working" ability to Charles Sherwood and Carl Doyle.

Don Bonney wills his athletic ability to Bruce Jenkins.

Rex Sieting leaves his girl (grudgingly) to Al Johnson, Allen Stebbins and Gerald Groner.

Robert Miller wills his gift of gab to Buster Bartholomew and Keith Meredith.

Dwight Hendricks wills his ability to pay attention in class to Joan Van Den Hout.

Patricia Thornburg wills her quietness to Jean Hulbert and Lorene Muler.

Nancy Isham wills her night life to Carl Thompson and Delwin Lewis.

To the Juniors we will our honorable place of Seniors, also our control over the rest of the school, Faculty members included (of course) and our ability to make money which we are certain they will need.

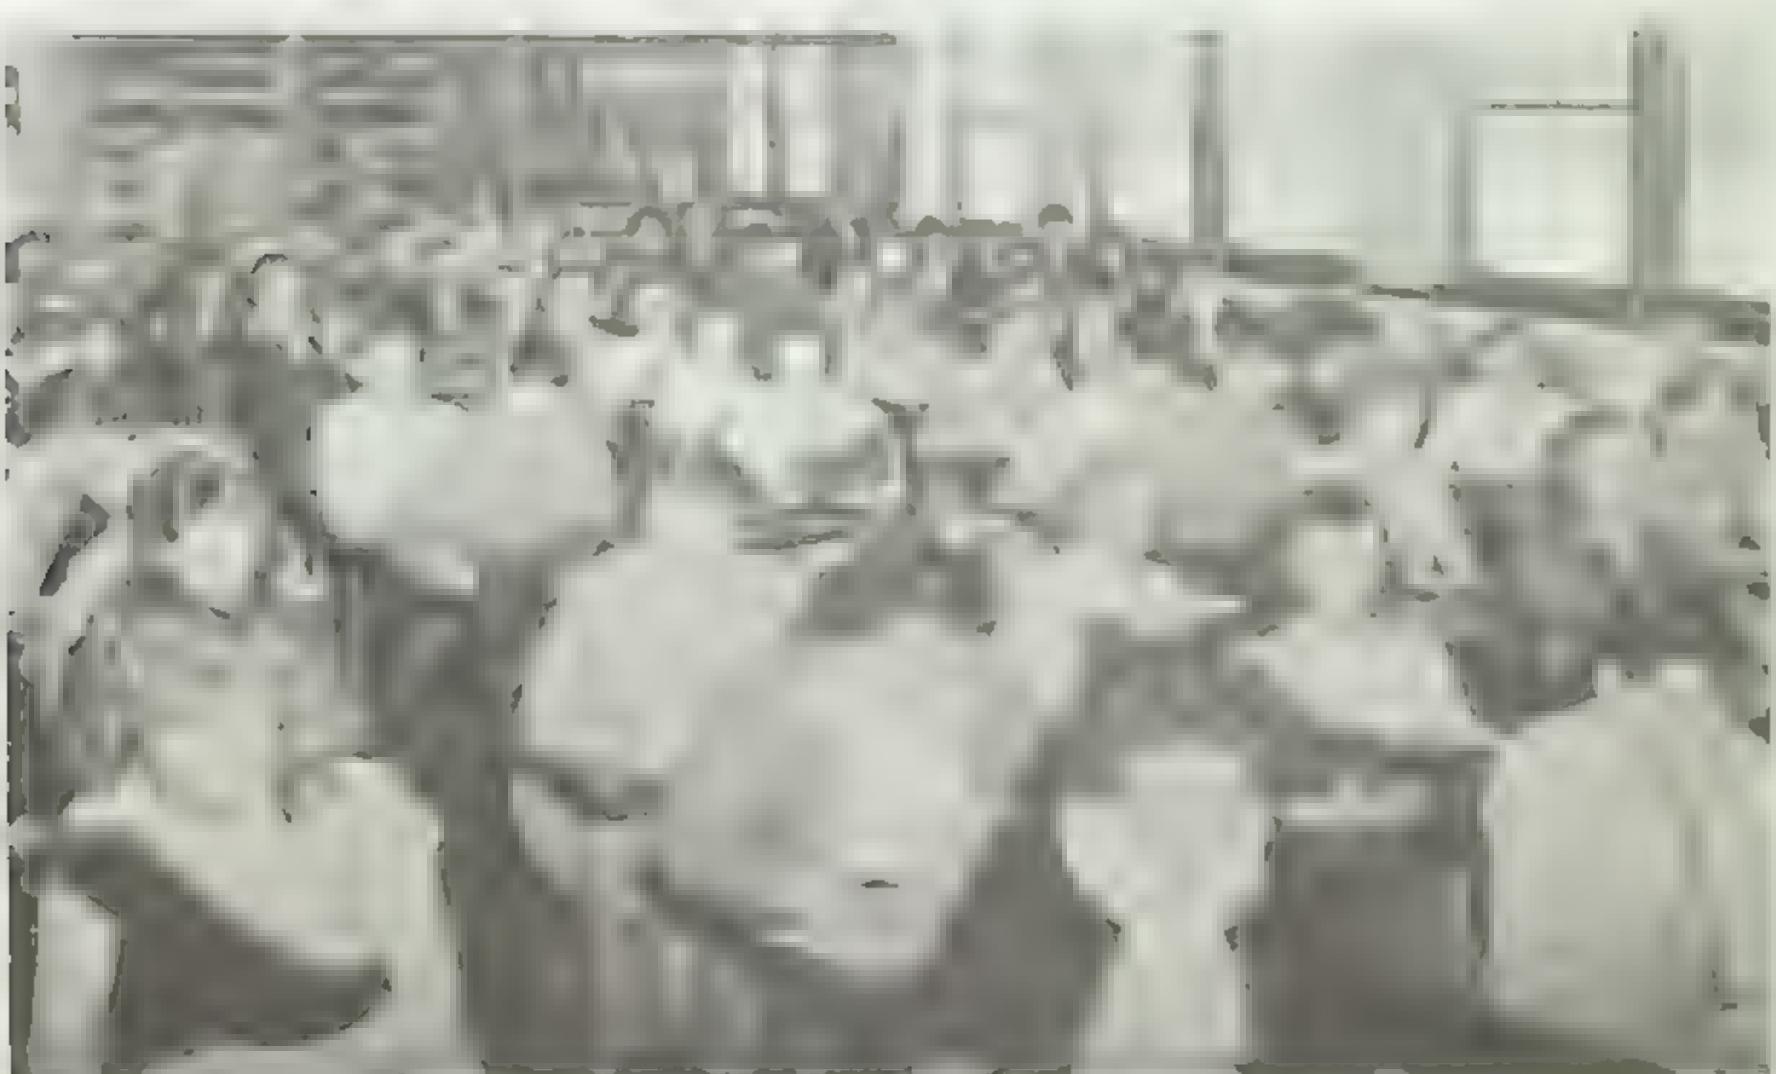

IN WITNESS THEREOF, we have hereunto set our hand and seal this 6th day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.
